- You should spend about:
 - 30 minutes on Section A
 - 45 minutes on Section B
- You should start your answer to Section B on a new page.

BLANK PAGE

Section A – Writing

You should spend about 30 minutes on this section.

In Twelfth Night, what the characters wear and how they look affects the ways other characters react to them.

How important is what you wear?

You read the following editorial in a teenage magazine:

We're looking for young people's comments on style and image to include in an article in next month's magazine.

Do you worry about your image?

Is fashion all a fuss about nothing?

Does the style of clothes you wear affect how people react to you?

What do you think about these issues?

Write your views for the teenage magazine.

20 marks including 4 marks for spelling

Section B – Reading

You should spend about 45 minutes on this section.

Twelfth Night

Act 2 Scene 4, lines 75 to 117
Act 3 Scene 1, line 81 to the end of the scene

Viola is not always able to say everything she is thinking and feeling.

In these extracts, how does Viola use language to hide her true feelings from Orsino and Olivia?

Support your ideas by referring to the extracts which are printed on the following pages.

Twelfth Night

Act 2 Scene 4, lines 75 to 117

In this extract, Orsino tells Cesario (Viola in disguise) about the love he feels for Olivia.

|--------|---|------------------------------|
| ORSINO | Once more, Cesario, Get thee to yond same sovereign cruelty. Tell her my love, more noble than the world, Prizes not quantity of dirty lands; The parts that fortune hath bestowed upon her Tell her I hold as giddily as fortune; But 'tis that miracle and queen of gems That nature pranks her in attracts my soul. | 75 80 |
| VIOLA | But if she cannot love you, sir? | |
| ORSINO | I cannot be so answered. | |
| VIOLA | Sooth, but you must. Say that some lady, as perhaps there is, Hath for your love as great a pang of heart As you have for Olivia. You cannot love her. You tell her so. Must she not then be answered? | 85 |
| ORSINO | There is no woman's sides Can bide the beating of so strong a passion As love doth give my heart; no woman's heart So big, to hold so much. They lack retention. Alas, their love may be called appetite, No motion of the liver, but the palate, That suffers surfeit, cloyment, and revolt, But mine is all as hungry as the sea, And can digest as much. Make no compare Between that love a woman can bear me, And that I owe Olivia. | 90 95 |
| VIOLA | Ay, but I know – | |
| ORSINO | What dost thou know? | 100 |
| VIOLA | Too well what love women to men may owe. In faith, they are as true of heart as we. My father had a daughter loved a man As it might be perhaps, were I a woman, I should your lordship. | |

| ORSINO | And what's her history? | 105 |
| VIOLA | A blank, my lord. She never told her love, But let concealment like a worm i'th'bud Feed on her damask cheek. She pined in thought, And with a green and yellow melancholy She sat like Patience on a monument, Smiling at grief. Was not this love indeed? We men may say more, swear more, but indeed Our shows are more than will: for still we prove Much in our vows, but little in our love. | 110 |
| ORSINO | But died thy sister of her love, my boy? | 115 |
| VIOLA | I am all the daughters of my father's house, And all the brothers, too – and yet I know not. | |

Act 3 Scene 1, line 81 to the end of the scene

In this extract, Olivia declares her love for Cesario.

| | | |
|--------|--|----|
| OLIVIA | What is your name? | |
| VIOLA | Cesario is your servant's name, fair princess. | |
| OLIVIA | My servant sir? 'Twas never merry world Since lowly feigning was called compliment. Y'are servant to the Count Orsino, youth. | 85 |
| VIOLA | And he is yours, and his must needs be yours: Your servant's servant is your servant, madam. | |
| OLIVIA | For him, I think not on him; for his thoughts, Would they were blanks, rather than filled with me! | |
| VIOLA | Madam, I come to whet your gentle thoughts On his behalf. | 90 |
| OLIVIA | O by your leave, I pray you! I bade you never speak again of him; But would you undertake another suit I had rather hear you to solicit that, Than music from the spheres. | |
| VIOLA | Dear lady – | 95 |
