Introduction

As in previous years, the external marking agency, under contract to QCDA, will mark the test papers. The markers will follow the mark schemes in this booklet, which are provided here to inform teachers.

This booklet includes the mark schemes for the assessment of reading, writing and spelling. For ease of reference, the test questions have been reproduced in the mark schemes. Level threshold tables will be posted on the QCDA website, http://testsandexams.qcda.gov.uk, on 5 July 2011.

The marks in the tests are allocated as follows:

The mark schemes were devised after trialling the tests with pupils and contain examples of some frequently occurring correct answers given in the trials. The mark schemes indicate the criteria on which judgements should be made. In areas of uncertainty however, markers should exercise professional judgement based on the training they have received.

The same sets of assessment focuses for reading and writing provide information about the particular processes or skills the pupil needs in order to answer the questions. This information is provided in order to explain the structure of each mark scheme as well as the way in which it will be used by external markers. The assessment focuses are drawn from the national curriculum and are directly related to the National Strategies Primary Framework and the Assessing Pupils’ Progress framework.

The 2011 key stage 2 English tests and mark schemes were produced by the key stage 2 English team at the National Foundation for Educational Research (NFER) on behalf of QCDA.
The reading test

The range of marks available for each question is given under the mark box at the side of the page in the Reading Answer Booklet.

Incorrect or unacceptable answers are given a mark of 0. No half marks are awarded.

There are several different answer formats:

- short answers
  These may be only a word or phrase, and 1 mark may be awarded for each correct response.

- several line answers
  These may be phrases or a sentence or two, and up to 2 marks may be awarded.

- longer answers
  These require a more detailed explanation of the pupil’s opinion, and up to 3 marks may be awarded.

- other answers
  Some responses do not involve writing and the requirements are explained in the question.

The mark scheme was devised after trialling the tests with pupils and contains examples (these are shown in italics) of some frequently occurring correct answers given in the trials. Many pupils will, however, have different ways of wording an acceptable answer. In assessing each answer, markers must focus on the content of what has been written and not on the quality of the writing, expression or grammatical construction, etc.

Assessment focuses for reading

The aspects of reading to be assessed are pupils’ ability to:

1. use a range of strategies, including accurate decoding of text, to read for meaning
2. understand, describe, select or retrieve information, events or ideas from texts and use quotation and reference to text
3. deduce, infer or interpret information, events or ideas from texts
4. identify and comment on the structure and organisation of texts, including grammatical and presentational features at text level
5. explain and comment on writers’ uses of language, including grammatical and literary features at word and sentence level
6. identify and comment on writers’ purposes and viewpoints, and the overall effect of the text on the reader
7. relate texts to their social, cultural and historical contexts and literary traditions.
20. Complete the three thought bubbles to show what the writer is thinking and feeling at three different points in the cave.

Assessment focus 3: deduce, infer or interpret information, events or ideas from texts (complex inference).
Accept answers written in the 2nd or 3rd person.

a. Going in

1 mark

Award 1 mark for answers which provide an appropriate thought / feeling, exclamation or comment on the writer's situation.

Appropriate thoughts / feelings should relate to:
- apprehension / nervousness
- anticipation
- excitement.

Examples:
- I am a bit nervous but I'm also excited
- scared of what lies inside the cave for him and the dangers
- it's so dark!
- wow, I can't wait.

Also award 1 mark for the following quotation from the text:
- the entrance is comfortingly big, wide and tall enough …

Do not accept references to sections of text that are not relevant to this particular part of the experience, eg:
- wow, it's so beautiful in here.
The following table identifies the questions (with marks available) that address each assessment focus (AF):

2. Find and copy the phrase on page 4 that shows that Daveley Dale caves are very popular.

1 mark

Assessment focus 2: understand, describe, select or retrieve information, events or ideas from texts and use quotation and reference to text.

Award 1 mark for any quotation from the following sentence that includes the word ‘thousands’. The quotation may be of any length.

- Every year thousands of people come here to make a once-in-a-lifetime journey, underground.

Do not penalise minor copying errors.

3. Why is Daveley Dale a good place for young people to learn caving?

1 mark

Assessment focus 3: deduce, infer or interpret information, events or ideas from texts (simple inference).

Award 1 mark for references to (qualified) instructors or to a safe environment, eg:

- there is an expert to guide them
- it's safe
- led by qualified instructors in a safe environment.
Questions 4, 5 and 7

Assessment focus 6: identify and comment on writers’ purposes and viewpoints, and the overall effect of the text on the reader.

Question 6

Assessment focus 4: identify and comment on the structure and organisation of texts, including grammatical and presentational features at text level.

Question 8

Assessment focus 2: understand, describe, select or retrieve information, events or ideas from texts and use quotation and reference to text.

Award 1 mark for each correct choice.

4. The purpose of page 5 is to

- introduce you to the whole booklet
- explain difficult words
- encourage you to visit Daveley Dale caves
- provide pictures

5. and it is also helps you to

- go rock climbing
- find the information in the booklet
- understand the other texts in the booklet
- find your way to Daveley Dale caves

6. The information is

- numbered
- in alphabetical order
- in order of size
- not in order

7. The first word in each box is a special term used by

- experts on rocks and caves
- people who write leaflets
- science teachers
- people who live in Daveley Dale

8. For example, it tells you that a swallet is a word for a cave formed

- quickly
- in lakes
- in soft rock
- by a stream
In which order did the interviewer organise the interview? Insert numbers in the boxes to show the order. The first one has been done for you.

1 mark

Assessment focus 4: identify and comment on the structure and organisation of texts, including grammatical and presentational features at text level.

Award 1 mark for all four stages correctly numbered.

worst moment 4
early childhood memory 2
first caving experience 3
best moment 5
what inspires Lisa to go caving 1
10. What does Lisa say is the main difference between caving and climbing a mountain?

1 mark

Assessment focus 2: understand, describe, select or retrieve information, events or ideas from texts and use quotation and reference to text.

Award 1 mark for answers that refer to the difference between seeing and imagining (this may be quoted directly from Lisa’s answer to the first question), eg:

- a climber can stand and look up and see the challenge while for a caver, really you have to imagine it
- a caver has to crouch down and try and picture in their heads what is in front of them, a climber can stand and see their goal.

Do not accept answers that focus only on climbing or caves, eg:
- that a climber can stand and look up and see the challenge
- for a caver you have to imagine your challenge.

Do not accept answers which do not make the difference between seeing and imagining clear, eg:
- that a mountaineer can see the challenge and a caver can’t.

11. How can you tell that Lisa would like her brother to try caving?

1 mark

Assessment focus 5: explain and comment on writers’ uses of language, including grammatical and literary features at word and sentence level.

Award 1 mark for recognising and/or interpreting the use of the word tempt or copying the relevant sentence, eg:

- she says ‘I haven’t been able to tempt him’
- she says that she tries to persuade him
- she is trying to get him underground
- she says she can’t get him to go underground which suggests that she wants him to.
12. Lisa always goes caving with other people. Give two reasons from the text why she does this.

Assessment focus 3: deduce, infer or interpret information, events or ideas from texts (simple inference).

Award 1 mark for each valid point made from the categories below, up to a maximum of 2 marks:

- reassurance of another voice (in the darkness), eg:
  - so you can hear a familiar voice
- reliance on others / explicit advantages of teamwork if in danger, eg:
  - something might go wrong and if someone needs help you can help each other when in danger
- identification of a specific danger that is mentioned in the text, eg:
  - in case there are flash floods.

Do not accept reference to reassurance without reference to hearing another voice or to teamwork without stating advantages, eg:

- so she is reassured
- for reassurance
- teamwork / teamwork is good / critical.

Do not accept answers which could relate to any non-hazardous activity, eg:

- to keep her company / for safety / getting lost / to encourage her
- you can help each other.

Do not accept a quotation from the text without explanation, eg:

- you really do have to work together.
13. Interviewers ask questions for different reasons.
Why do you think the interviewer asked the following questions?
Match each question to its purpose.

Assessment focus 6: identify and comment on writers' purposes and viewpoints, and the overall effect of the text on the reader.

Award 2 marks for all four correctly matched pairs.
Award 1 mark for two or three correctly matched pairs.

14. The interviewer spoke to Lisa’s mother too. Write down what you think she would have said about Lisa, using what you have read in the interview.

_Ever since Lisa was a child, I always knew she'd do something like caving because she ..._

up to 2 marks

Assessment focus 3: deduce, infer or interpret information, events or ideas from texts (complex inference).

Award 2 marks for answers which identify one aspect of Lisa’s character.

Appropriate characteristics:
- adventurous
- keen on exploration
- enjoys a challenge
- determined
- enthusiastic
- confident / fearless / brave.

For example:
- likes to explore
- was extremely adventurous. Always climbing trees, exploring. Nothing ever scared Lisa
- would take on a challenge
- was keen on exploring. Also she would always love a hard challenge to knuckle down to
- always wanted to beat her brother to the top of the hill and she was determined to win
- is very confident and not scared in any way.

Award 1 mark for answers which provide a text-based reference to Lisa’s behaviour which exemplifies an appropriate characteristic, eg:

- always liked climbing so I thought she would do something like caving
- was always racing ahead and always trying to get to the top of the hill.
Section 3: Caving ... what lies beneath?

15. The article is about a caving trip.
What is the name of the cave?
1 mark

Assessment focus 2: understand, describe, select or retrieve information, events or ideas from texts and use quotation and reference to text.

Award 1 mark for:

- Giant's Hole.

16a. Underline the sentence that shows that the writer feels very small in the cave.
1 mark

Assessment focus 5: explain and comment on writers’ uses of language, including grammatical and literary features at word and sentence level.

Award 1 mark for:

- I am a tiny scrap of meat filling in a colossal rock sandwich.

Also award 1 mark for underlining a significant part of the sentence, eg:

- I am a tiny scrap (of meat filling).

16b. The writer is lying on his back, looking upwards. What does he say that he can see?
1 mark

Assessment focus 2: understand, describe, select or retrieve information, events or ideas from texts and use quotation and reference to text.

Award 1 mark for references to rock, eg:

- rock / limestone
- another sheet of rock.

Do not accept:
- wet rocks / sheet of wet rock.
16c. Find and copy one word that shows that the rock is big.

1 mark

Assessment focus 2: understand, describe, select or retrieve information, events or ideas from texts and use quotation and reference to text.

Award 1 mark for any of the following:

- colossal (rock)
- thousands (upon thousands)
- (thousands of) tons
- sheet (of rock).

Do not accept:
- thousands upon thousands of tons of rock.

16d. Find and copy one word that shows he is not completely certain that the rock is firm.

1 mark

Assessment focus 2: understand, describe, select or retrieve information, events or ideas from texts and use quotation and reference to text.

Award 1 mark for:

- fairly.

Do not accept:
- fairly solid.
16e. Why does the writer include so many numbers in this paragraph?

Assessment focus 6: identify and comment on writers’ purposes and viewpoints, and the overall effect of the text on the reader.

Award 1 mark for reference to the writer’s emphasis on the extreme dimensions of himself or his surroundings, eg:

- to emphasise the size / smallness / narrowness of the tunnel
- to exaggerate the bigness
- because he is telling us how big everything is and he is explaining how big the rocks were
- to let you imagine how big the rock is.

Also award 1 mark for answers referring to helping the reader visualise the overall impression, eg:

- to make you imagine what it’s like
- to show that he is very deep underground
- he is getting the reader to imagine how big everything is.

Do not accept answers concerned with precision, eg:

- it’s accurate / it gives the exact measurements
- because he wants to say the height and length
- because it is telling you how high the cave is.
16f. Imagine this

What is the effect of starting with these words?

1 mark

Assessment focus 5: explain and comment on writers' uses of language, including grammatical and literary features at word and sentence level.

Award 1 mark for reference to his attempt to involve the reader in visualising the scene or empathising with the writer, eg:

- to get the reader to try and see what he’s describing
- to make you picture what it’s like
- to make the reader think they are there
- it’s making you imagine what it’s like to be him
- it gets you to imagine how scary it is.

Do not accept undeveloped responses which may refer to and attempt to explain the term ‘imagine’, eg:

- getting us to imagine what he’s done
- to get you to think about it
- to get the reader to feel.

Do not accept more general answers, eg:

- to make it more exciting
- to make you read on
- giving us more detail.

17. What equipment was needed for this caving trip?

Tick four items.

1 mark

Assessment focus 2: understand, describe, select or retrieve information, events or ideas from texts and use quotation and reference to text.

Award 1 mark for all four items correctly ticked.

- hot water bottle
- helmet ✓
- gloves
- rubber clothes ✓
- headlamp ✓
- hat
- mobile phone
- wellies ✓
18. Why does the writer try to keep his voice:

deep and calm?

1 mark

Assessment focus 3: deduce, infer or interpret information, events or ideas from texts (complex inference).

Award 1 mark for answers relating to the author demonstrating his control of fear, for the benefit of others (may be implicit), eg:

- to show he’s not scared
- so that Duncan won’t know he’s scared
- so nobody knows he is worried
- so his friends would stay calm
- so other cavers don’t think he is in danger
- so he sounds in control.

Do not accept references to rock fall, eg:

- because if he shouts loudly the rock will crumble
- so that he doesn’t cause lots of rock to fall.

Do not accept references to the author needing to keep himself calm, eg:

- so that he doesn’t panic
- if he didn’t he might panic and slip
- because he is scared.

What has happened to make the writer stop panicking?

1 mark

Assessment focus 3: deduce, infer or interpret information, events or ideas from texts (simple inference).

Award 1 mark for answers referring to the fact that they are no longer stuck in the crevice / they appear to be out of trouble / safe or that Duncan has moved, eg:

- he says he can nearly stand up
- the person who was stuck got out
- Duncan started to move.

Do not accept general answers, eg:

- they have become safe.

Do not accept references to the loop, eg:

- they have gone on a loop.
20. Complete the three thought bubbles to show what the writer is thinking and feeling at three different points in the cave.

Assessment focus 3: deduce, infer or interpret information, events or ideas from texts (complex inference).
Accept answers written in the 2nd or 3rd person.

20a. Going in

Award 1 mark for answers which provide an appropriate thought / feeling, exclamation or comment on the writer’s situation.

Appropriate thoughts / feelings should relate to:

- apprehension / nervousness
- anticipation
- excitement.

Examples:

- I am a bit nervous but I’m also excited
- scared of what lies inside the cave for him and the dangers
- it’s so dark!
- wow, I can’t wait.

Also award 1 mark for the following quotation from the text:

- … the entrance is comfortingly big, wide and tall enough …

Do not accept references to sections of text that are not relevant to this particular part of the experience, eg:

- wow, it’s so beautiful in here.

continued…
20b. In the cave

Award 1 mark for answers which provide an appropriate thought / feeling, exclamation or comment on the writer’s situation.

Appropriate thoughts / feelings should relate to:

- fear
- threat
- danger
- regret / concern.

Examples:

- help, I'm scared
- ahh help! I'm stuck. I may never get out
- why did I do this?
- I'm squashed, I can do it, come on.

Also award 1 mark for either of the following quotations from the text:

- I am a tiny scrap of meat …
- … we are in a strange, hostile environment … we could die here.

Do not accept references to the dark.
Do not accept references to sections of text that are not relevant to this particular part of the experience, eg:

- I'm having a great time!
- he might be going to rescue somebody.
20c. Getting out

Award 1 mark for answers which provide an appropriate thought / feeling, exclamation or comment on the writer’s situation.

Appropriate thoughts / feelings should relate to:
- relief
- exhilaration
- delight
- achievement
- reflection on experience.

Examples:
- finally, we are out
- phew, I’m alive. I’m fine. There’s nothing wrong and I made it through
- happy and thinking it wasn’t that bad at all, except when I was stuck.

Also award 1 mark for either of the following quotations from the text:
- … all four of us beginners were babbling …
- We’d done plenty for one day, thanks.

Do not accept references to sections of text that are not relevant to this particular part of the experience, eg:
- he might be taking somebody out of there
- I want to get out of the cave.
21. Explain what makes the writer feel scared. Use what you have read in the whole article.

Think about:
- what the writer is doing
- what he thinks might happen.

up to 3 marks

Assessment focus 3: deduce, infer or interpret information, events or ideas from texts (complex inference).

Possible points include fear of any of the following which may or may not result in injury or death:
- being lost
- narrowness of tunnels / claustrophobia / suffocation
- fear of being trapped (for a long time)
- possibility of rock fall
- the dark
- being a novice / fear of the unknown
- his smallness compared to vastness of rock / cave complex
- absence of an instructor.

Award 3 marks for answers which refer to three of the possible points or which refer to two points and develop at least one, eg:

- he thinks that he might get stuck and trapped. He is in a place he knows nothing about and he feels small [fear of being trapped; fear of the unknown; his smallness]
- firstly, Duncan hasn't moved in a long time. Secondly, he thinks he's going to suffocate in the tunnel and never see light again. Finally, he thought they were lost and the water was trickling in and was going to drown them [fear of being trapped; suffocation; being lost]
- when Andy the instructor left them alone and directed them Stephen thought that they had gone the wrong way which made him panic. When Stephen could not hear Duncan it made him worried as he didn't know what had happened to him [absence of an instructor; being lost; fear of the unknown]
- what made the writer feel scared was that he felt like he was suffocating and that the tunnels were getting smaller as they went on. He is very scared that the cave could collapse on him. [suffocation + development; possibility of rock fall].

Award 2 marks for answers which refer to two different points or cover one point in full, eg:

- when he thought Duncan was stuck and when he thought he was suffocating [fear of being trapped; suffocation]
- he thinks he might be suffocated if the cave falls on him because he is lying flat on his back [suffocation; possibility of rock fall]
- Duncan looks stuck and they don’t know how long the tunnel is [fear of being trapped; fear of the unknown]
- he is scared because he is in a tunnel which is very narrow and he can’t breathe which makes him panic. [narrowness + development].

Award 1 mark for an answer that presents one point without development, eg:

- he’s lost and doesn’t know the way out [being lost]
- the writer might think rocks will fall on them and might very badly injure one of them. The writer probably is panicking but he is just not showing it [possibility of rock fall]
- because he is crawling through small spaces [narrowness]
- because it was so dark [the dark].

Also award 1 mark for fear of death or serious injury without explanation (not credited in combination with other creditworthy points), eg:

- he’s scared because he thinks he might die.

Do not accept references to falling or non-specific comments, eg:

- he thinks something bad will happen.

Do not accept references to other texts, eg:

- he was worried about the flash floods
- the cave might gush with water and he’s doing something quite scary.
22. Look at the text on page 10, starting from And I was struck by the beauty ... to the end of the article.

Explain the writer's thoughts and feelings.

up to 3 marks

Assessment focus 3: deduce, infer or interpret information, events or ideas from texts (complex inference).

Award 1 mark for reference to each of the key points listed below, up to a maximum of 3 marks.

A further mark may be awarded for:
- supplementing one of the key points with text-based development.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>key point</th>
<th>text-based development</th>

</tbody>
</table>

Examples of 3 mark answers:
- he thought Wow I am so pleased I struggled to reach an amazing sight like this! He feels overwhelmed, excited and would love to do it again! [recognition of the beauty underground; feeling of achievement; expectation that he would return]
- this is amazing, this is fantastic. I can’t believe I made it here, it seems like everything is covered in candle wax [recognition of the beauty underground + text-based development; feeling of achievement]
- because he was relieved that the scary part was over he started to realise the beauty and wonder of the cave and he felt much better [feeling of relief + text-based development; recognition of beauty underground].

Examples of 2 mark answers:

- he was amazed by the beauty of the caves and when he emerged he was exhilarated [recognition of the beauty underground; exhilaration]
- he was amazed at the beauty of the caves. The fronds were as big as his hands and they were made of coral [recognition of the beauty underground + text-based development]
- Wow this place is amazing and beautiful. I’m really enjoying this. I ought to do this again sometime. [recognition of the beauty underground; expectation that he would return].

Examples of 1 mark answers:

- surprised in a good way, happy and inspired to do more caving [expectation that he would return]
- by the end he thought about what he had achieved and he was happy with himself [feeling of achievement]
- I am going to be OK because I am with Andy and thank goodness, I thought I might never get out [feeling of relief].

Do not accept direct quotation from this section of text without any explanation or expansion.
Section 4: The advertisement

24. Page 11 was written to make everyone interested in visiting Daveley Dale.

Find and copy one part of the advertisement that attracts the following people.

a. people interested in rocks
b. teachers

Assessment focus 2: understand, describe, select or retrieve information, events or ideas from texts and use quotation and reference to text.

Award 1 mark for:

- (spectacular) stalactites and/or stalagmites
- encrusted caverns
- impressive formation
- school groups (catered for)
- guided tours

Do not penalise minor copying errors.
25. The advertisement is designed to attract people to Daveley Dale.
Why does it include quotations from visitors?

Assessment focus 6: identify and comment on writers’ purposes and viewpoints, and the overall effect of the text on the reader.

Award 2 marks for answers which explain that the quotations function as a recommendation from other people, eg:

- so you know what people who have been there think of it
- so they can tell you how good it is
- to tell you people think it’s good
- to show you which age groups enjoyed it.

Award 1 mark for reference to the quotations encouraging more people to visit or to being convincing or giving a positive general impression, eg:

- to attract more people
- to show how enjoyable / fun / good it is
- to make it sound really good.

Do not accept responses which are based closely on the question, eg:

- to persuade you to visit / to attract people to come.
26. Label each arrow to show different parts of the advertisement.

Assessment focus 4: identify and comment on the structure and organisation of texts, including grammatical and presentational features at text level.

Award 1 mark for all boxes completed correctly.
Section 5: The whole booklet

27. Sentences have been left out of each of the texts you have read. Draw lines to match each sentence to the text you think it came from.

Assessment focus 3: deduce, infer or interpret information, events or ideas from texts (complex inference).

Award 2 marks for all four matched correctly.

Award 1 mark for two or three matched correctly.

- It will be the best day of your holiday!
- Creeping forward is agony.
- What will be your next challenge?
- Crampon: Hook used for climbing and caving.
- Interview with Lisa Clark
- Need to know
- Article by Stephen Bleach
- Advertisement
28. Lisa compared going caving to moving like a worm.

Find one more word on page 7 and two words on page 10 that give the idea that caving is like moving like a worm.

a. An interview with Lisa Clark
1 mark

Assessment focus 5: explain and comment on writers' uses of language, including grammatical and literary features at word and sentence level.

Award 1 mark for:

- slither.

Also accept:

- slithering / slithered / you slither.

b. Caving ... what lies beneath?
1 mark

Assessment focus 5: explain and comment on writers' uses of language, including grammatical and literary features at word and sentence level.

Award 1 mark for:

- wriggling and squirming in either order.

Also accept:

- wriggled / wriggle / squirmed / squirm.

Do not accept other phrases, eg:

- crawling on your stomach / slithering out.
29a. Which text do you think might encourage someone to visit a cave?

Tick one.

Explain your choice.

up to 2 marks

Assessment focus 6: identify and comment on writers’ purposes and viewpoints, and the overall effect of the text on the reader.

Award 2 marks for reference to an appropriate and positive feature of a text that is specific to that text only, eg:

- it tells you how fun and dangerous it can be at the same time not like the article that is just danger (interview)
- it talks about going to places that no one has been to before (interview)
- it gives information about the geology and what you could see (article)
- it tells you everything you can do and when it’s open and the prices, because you want to feel the excitement like the quotations did (advertisement)
- it says a girl aged 10 really liked it, I’m 11 (advertisement)
- it has positive language, nothing negative, and it makes you want to be there (advertisement)
- it says it costs £25 for a family and that is cheap for a whole day out (advertisement).

Award 1 mark for reference to an appropriate and positive feature of a text that could apply to more than one text, eg:

- it’s very beautiful / awe-inspiring (all texts)
- it sounds very exciting / worthwhile (all texts)
- it explains the physical challenge (article / interview)
- because it gives you the information about caves (all texts)
- because it says what fun it is (interview / advertisement).

Do not accept answers which simply refer to the persuasive purpose of the advertisement or simply refer to the cost stated in the advertisement without further explanation or which paraphrase the question.
29b. Which text do you think might put someone off visiting a cave?

Tick one.

Explain your choice.

---

up to 2 marks

Assessment focus 6: identify and comment on writers' purposes and viewpoints, and the overall effect of the text on the reader.

Award 2 marks for reference to an appropriate feature of a text that is specific to that text only, eg:

- because the fast flood comes and you could drown (interview)
- it shows it can be dangerous underground. They got stuck in the cave (article)
- it makes them scared, they are very scared (article)
- it would be crowded with lots of people and because it is quite expensive (advertisement).

Award 1 mark for reference to an appropriate feature of a text that could apply to more than one text, eg:

- it shows it can be uncomfortable / wet / cramped (interview / article)
- where it tells us the bad parts (interview / article)
- it shows it can be dangerous (interview / article).
The writing test

There are two mark schemes, one for the longer task Record Breaker (pages 40–43); the other for the shorter task Charity Choice (pages 58–59).

Assessment focuses for writing

The aspects of writing to be assessed are pupils’ ability to:

1. write imaginative, interesting and thoughtful texts
2. produce texts which are appropriate to task, reader and purpose
3. organise and present whole texts effectively, sequencing and structuring information, ideas and events
4. construct paragraphs and use cohesion within and between paragraphs
5. vary sentences for clarity, purpose and effect
6. write with technical accuracy of syntax and punctuation in phrases, clauses and sentences
7. select appropriate and effective vocabulary (this is not assessed separately, but contributes to text structure and organisation and composition and effect)
8. use correct spelling (assessed through the spelling test).

The mark scheme strands

For the purpose of marking the writing, related assessment focuses have been drawn together into three strands:

- sentence structure and punctuation
- text structure and organisation
- composition and effect.

For the longer task, the strands are organised as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Assessment focuses</th>
<th></th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>sentence structure and</td>
<td>vary sentences for clarity, purpose and effect</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>punctuation</td>
<td>write with technical accuracy of syntax and punctuation</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>in phrases, clauses and sentences.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>text structure and</td>
<td>organise and present whole texts effectively, sequencing</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>organisation</td>
<td>and structuring information, ideas and events</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>construct paragraphs and use cohesion within and between</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>paragraphs.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>composition and effect</td>
<td>write imaginative, interesting and thoughtful texts</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>produce texts which are appropriate to task, reader and purpose</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Handwriting is assessed in the longer task. The marking criteria are shown in section F on page 43.
For the shorter task, the strands are organised as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Assessment focuses</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>sentence structure, punctuation and text organisation</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>- vary sentences for clarity, purpose and effect</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>- write with technical accuracy of syntax and punctuation in phrases, clauses and sentences</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>- construct paragraphs and use cohesion within and between paragraphs.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>composition and effect</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>- write imaginative, interesting and thoughtful texts</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>- produce texts which are appropriate to task, reader and purpose.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

The criteria encourage positive recognition of achievement in writing. Pupils do not necessarily develop uniformly across these categories, and the strands allow separate judgements to be made about the relative strengths and weaknesses of a pupil’s work.

Marking procedures

The criteria for each strand identify typical characteristics of pupils’ work in different bands. When marking, it is helpful first to identify which bands are most relevant to the writing and then refine the judgement to a mark within a band. Criteria from lower bands that are also applicable to higher bands should be seen as relevant to higher band descriptors. For example, the criterion Sentences are mostly grammatically sound appears in Band A3. However, grammatical soundness should also be taken to be an underlying feature of performance at Band A4 and Band A5, even though it is not explicitly stated at these bands.

Where organisational devices are used to structure a piece of writing (eg firstly, secondly, finally; furthermore; consequently), credit should be given for evidence of effective and appropriate use. However, indiscriminate use of such devices (ie where the devices are not integrated meaningfully into the writing) should not be regarded as a positive feature of performance.

The annotations on the example scripts show how to look for features in the writing, and the summary boxes show how to weigh these features to reach a mark.

Where the writing clearly does not meet the criteria for Band 1, a mark of 0 should be awarded. Pupils will be expected to follow the prompt very carefully, especially in content and form. Pupils whose writing is unrelated to the prompt will not be credited with any marks for composition and effect. Those pupils who do not maintain the form throughout the piece, for example a non-fiction piece becoming narrative, will not have access to the full range of marks for composition and effect.

Marking the writing

A set of annotated scripts, written by year 6 pupils during the English pre-tests, is presented here to support judgements of the writing. Scripts are reproduced without corrections to spelling.
The longer task: Record Breaker

The prompt requires pupils to imagine that three local children have broken world records, and the task is to write a report for the local newspaper about one such record-breaking event. Ideas for content are given in the form of basic information about the three children’s records; however, the prompt makes it clear that the final choice is left to the writer’s imagination. Support for the development of content and the organisation of the newspaper report is supplied on the planning page; the pupil answer pages suggest newspaper presentation with a headline and image of a trophy. Better performances are distinguished by effective adaptation of content and structure to engage the newspaper’s readership and generate interest in the situation surrounding the record-breaking event.

Record Breaker

Three children living in your local area have recently broken world records in their age group:

• Ali broke the record for talking non-stop
• Morgan broke the record for continuous trampolining
• Sam broke the record for the largest collection of ...

Your task is to write a newspaper report for your local newspaper about ONE record-breaking event.

You can use one of these ideas, or you can make up your own.
Mark scheme for the longer task: Record Breaker

SECTION A

SENTENCE STRUCTURE AND PUNCTUATION

Assessment focuses: vary sentences for clarity, purpose and effect
write with technical accuracy of syntax and punctuation in phrases, clauses and sentences

Band A1

- Clauses usually grammatically accurate. Some simple sentences, often brief, starting with a subject + verb (Sam went). Clauses mostly joined with and, but, then, so.
- Sentences sometimes demarcated by capital letters and full stops.

1 mark

Band A2

- Subjects and verbs often simple and frequently repeated (he, it, goes, plays). Simple connectives and, but, then, so, when link clauses. Some sentence variation created, eg simple adverbials (at the sports centre, Today). Noun phrases mostly simple (the judges) with some limited expansion (a young boy).
- Full stops, capital letters, exclamation marks and question marks mostly accurate; commas used in lists.

2–3 marks

Band A3

- Sentences are mostly grammatically sound. Some variety in subordinating connectives: because, if (because he wanted it for ages). Adverbials (when it was raining), modal verbs (could, would) and expanded noun phrases (the community centre in the middle of town) add variety. Tense choice generally appropriate. Some variation of subjects (Her friends, the money). Some adverbs, eg to indicate writer's attitude towards the situation (Luckily, happily).
- Most sentences correctly demarcated; some commas mark phrases or clauses. If used, inverted commas demarcate the beginning and end of direct speech, correctly on most occasions.

4–5 marks

Band A4

- Simple and complex sentences with some variety of connectives, eg while, although, until. Expansion of phrases and clauses adds detail (the people who were waiting on the beach). Range of verb forms develops meaning and maintains appropriate tense choice (had been able to). Additional words and phrases contribute to shades of meaning, eg adverbs (particularly).
- Range of punctuation used, almost always correctly, eg brackets, dashes, colons. Full punctuation of direct speech, if used.

Band A5

- Length and focus of sentences varied to express subtleties in meaning and to focus on key ideas, eg passive (will be rewarded). Sentences may include controlled use of several subordinate clauses (playing with the team that's sure to win the next championship) sometimes for economy of expression. Word order to create emphasis (As interesting as this is).
- Range of punctuation, with little omission, to give clarity.

8 marks
SECTION B
TEXT STRUCTURE AND ORGANISATION

Assessment focuses: organise and present whole texts effectively, sequencing and structuring information, ideas and events construct paragraphs and use cohesion within and between paragraphs

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Band B1</th>
<th></th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
|● Ideas grouped into sequences of sentences; may follow a simple chronology. Use of third person may not be consistent. Beginning or end may be marked by simple narrative phrases (One day).
● Simple connectives used (and, and then). Some connection between sentences, eg pronouns referring to the same person or thing. | 1 mark |

<thead>
<tr>
<th>Band B2</th>
<th></th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
|● Text structure overall is simple: some events organised into a basic sequence; brief introduction or ending. Some divisions between events indicated (Next, On Saturday).
● Connections are built up by reference to events or people (Ben / he). Other relationships within and between sentences may be used, eg contrast (but they cost a lot of money). | 2–3 marks |

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Band B3</th>
<th></th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
|● The newspaper report is organised: paragraphs or sections are logically sequenced, although transitions may be awkward. Shifts in time and place help shape the text and guide the reader, eg by introducing a new section (His next record will be).
● Within paragraphs or sections, content may be developed around a main sentence. Paragraphs or sections organised to expand a particular event or topic, eg comments from friends. Connections within paragraphs or sections maintained, eg through ongoing references (Sarah / her sister). | 4–5 marks |

<thead>
<tr>
<th>Band B4</th>
<th></th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
|● Overall organisation of the newspaper report is supported by paragraphs or sections which enable coherent development and control of content across the text. Relationships between paragraphs or sections give structure to the whole text, eg links make structure between topics clear.
● Within paragraphs or sections, main ideas are developed with relevant detail or examples, eg a paragraph gives detail about a significant event. Reference to people / events / settings sometimes varied to avoid repetition (the 8 year old / the youngster). | 6–7 marks |

<thead>
<tr>
<th>Band B5</th>
<th></th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
|● Sequencing of paragraphs or sections contributes to overall effectiveness. The structure of the newspaper report is controlled across the text. Chronology may be interrupted for effect, eg inclusion of comments, or quotations from the record breaker or record breaker’s family. Individual paragraphs or sections are varied in length and structure.
● Each paragraph or section has a clear focus, and content is organised. Connection between ideas developed, eg by reference or contrast within the paragraph (Although everyone told her to stop). | 8 marks |
SECTION C  COMPOSITION AND EFFECT

Assessment focuses: write imaginative, interesting and thoughtful texts produce texts which are appropriate to task, reader and purpose

<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>● Viewpoint is established and controlled, eg the reporter appears well informed (represent England, Ali’s mother Julie).</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>

SECTION F

HANDWRITING

All pupils need to develop a serviceable handwriting style which is legible, clear and encourages the reader to engage with what has been written.

This assessment of handwriting is based on pupils’ ability to write legibly and fluently in a sustained piece of writing.

Judgements will be made on the basis of the legibility and clarity of the handwriting throughout the longer task, supported by a closer look at the size and position of words and letters.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Band F1</th>
<th>The handwriting is legible and shows some features of regularity in size and spacing. However, overall the script is disjointed and uneven.</th>

The trampoline record has been broken once again. Kelly Gordon has done it. She is the world record. Outstanding time is 4 days no stopping. It all happened in there back Garden on the 5th March 2009.

Her sister Chloe Gordon was there in the back garden timeing her for 4 days. Kelly Gordon doing all back flips and more. She was on fire. Flips and kicks all 4 days how did she do it?

If you want to see Kelly doing flips got to outstanding flips by KellyG.com. She is doing some outstanding flip kick you name it she's doing.
Earlier last week a young 10 year old boy named Sam won a 500m race in just 50 mins!

This breathtaking event took place at the one and only London Park. It was a sunny Wednesday evening and everybody from every street came to watch the 500m London bike race 2010!

As soon as the whistle blew all 20 competitors set off like the wind. As the minutes got by most of the racers started to give up as none of them could never catch up with Sam...

Doing 10 mins per 100m the crowd was shocked with excitement!!! A shocking attempt made by one of the other racers tried to knock young Sam over. Luckily Sam was going too fast for him...!

Sam eventually met the finish line! The crowd was amazed for Sam had set the record for doing 500m in just 50 min! I can't believe I set the world record for 500m in 50 min! Sam replied looking very tired. Whilst carrying the shiny, golden trophy home the crowd looked gobsmacked!! (What an amazing, breathtaking race)!

Summary

In this simple report about a bike race, the inclusion of detail and some careful word choice help to provide some development of the events leading up to Sam's world record. These features, supported by evidence of a point of view, are sufficient to merit the highest mark in Band C2. Greater consistency of style would be necessary for an award in the next band.

Band A2 – 3 marks

Summary

Evidence of references within and between sentences builds connection in the text and indicates award in Band B2. The higher mark is confirmed by features of simple overall structure, including an introduction and divisions within the event sequence.

Band B2 – 3 marks

Summary

The report includes some description (Sam was going too fast) and explanation (could never catch up) of how the record was broken (C2).

Viewpoint is evident through comments on reactions to Sam's achievement (the crowd was amazed) (C2).

Some detail is given (shocked, tired, shiny, golden trophy). Some language choices are formal (competitors) and some are less formal (gobsmacked) (C2).

Band C2 – 5 marks
Yesterday morning young Jonathan White Smashed a World record. Jonathan, age 11, Set the new record for largest collection of marbles. Jonathan owned a great 1317 marble collection which blew away the previous record of 939 which was collected by Liam Salt.

Jonathan described his emotions as estatic and over the moon. Near by neighbours were speechles.

After collecting for years and years Jonathan has finally done it said Mr and Mrs White we are so proud of him they added. Jonathan is hoping that he will be able to increase his record and hope for the best for the future to come. This record will live long in the memories of him, his family and the people around him.
SENTENCE STRUCTURE & PUNCTUATION

AS FAST AS A CHEATER

Ben Wilson is now the fastest 12 year old boy on the planet to run the 100m sprint. He aced it at Tadcater with an amazing time of 12 seconds. It was only a village race that gave Ben his dream to become the next Usane Bolt. Everyone in the village was amazed at Ben's time, Mr Mitchell quoted “it was just amence, he shot down that track like a bullet”.

Ben's name has been entered into next year's Guinness World Record book. He has also been scouted for the young British Olympic squad where he will train three times a week. Ben's coach quoted “this boy has real potential and will go a long way, in a few years he might even be chosen for the Olympics”.

This is a great achievement for Ben, he says he will always remember the 11th of July was when his dream came true. Ben quoted “this is the best thing that has ever happened to me”.

The race that Ben took part in (in Tadcater) will still go on every year. Ben's success has influenced people all over the world to start running and although Ben's time was fast, one day someone might just smash his record.

It has to be said that Ben Wilson is as fast as a cheater hunting its prey!

Reported by Emily Jones

COMPOSITION & EFFECT

- Newspaper form maintained through the balance of reporting (only a village race that gave Ben his dream) and quotation (this boy has real potential and will go a long way) and the use of the headline (as fast as a cheater) (C3).
- Viewpoint is maintained: Ben is portrayed as exceptionally talented (the next Usane Bolt) (C3).
- The level of formality is consistent (scouted, influenced) and word choice is informative (British Olympic squad, 11th of July). Some phrases provide interest (someone might just smash his record) (C3).

TEXT STRUCTURE & ORGANISATION

Summary

In this developed newspaper report, detailed information and comments establish a positive impression towards Ben and his record breaking achievement, leading to award in Band C3. The use of style supports the informative purpose, justifying the highest mark in the band.

Band C3 – 8 marks

TEXT STRUCTURE & ORGANISATION

Summary

Within sections, there is evidence of topic development and expansion through the use of comments, quotations and ongoing references, indicating award in Band B3. The overall organisation of the text, shown through logical sequencing, confirms the higher mark.

Band B3 – 5 marks

Band A3 – 5 marks

Sentence structure is developed by the use of subordination, adverbials and expanded noun phrases, suggesting award in Band A3. Although the use of commas to mark divisions is not secure, mostly accurate sentence demarcation and inverted commas to indicate speech justify the higher mark in the band.

Logical overall sequencing (B3): shift to future events

Connections within the paragraph maintained (B3)

Paragraph development: expansion through comment (B3)

Inverted commas (A3)

Adverbials (A3)

Expanded noun phrases (A3)

Subordination (A3)

Secure sentence demarcation (A3)

An amazing record has been broken!

12 year old, Ali has broken the record for talking non-stop! The previous record was 24 hours however, Ali made that time look easy! 44 hours, was the time she kept talking for.

It first started on Thursday 13th September 2010. Ali told us that she woke up that morning and thought to herself “I want to do something amazing”. After a lot of thought (and looking through World Record Books) she eventually found non-stop talking. Originally, the record was held by Rachel Parsons who was also 12 years old.

Ali started at 12:00pm that same day and her parents were very supportive, however, told us that they didn’t think she really be able to achieve it.

At all times someone from ‘Record Breaker’ had to be with Ali, Jennie Cook was this person. We talked to Jennie, and this is what she said.

“it was hard work following Ali everywhere, however, I really enjoyed it because, some of the time she would talk about such random things!

Poor Ali had to go to school while she was breaking the record. As well as this she had to go to dance! Worst of all, she couldn’t sleep for one moment because she couldn’t stop talking for any one time!

Here at ‘Buckston Weekly’ we talked to some of her friends and family. Some were very supportive; some found it annoying however, all of them agreed that Ali deserves the recognition.

For her achievement Ali was rewarded with a golden trophy; certificate and of course a place in the latest ‘Record Breaker’ book! She also, didn’t realise that while she was doing it she was raising money! Overall, she raised £216 which she decided would all go to her favourite charity.

An interview took place with Ali herself, and here is what she said.

“I’m so proud of what I have achieved and hopefully I have inspired a lot of people to try something different.”

In conclusion, everyone is very pleased for Ali and is glad she achieved her goal!

Yesterday, Guinness World Records made a Local 10 year old a record breaker. The record, Continuous Trampolining, stood at 2 days, 3 hours and 23 minutes. This terrific feat achieved by 2004 Hurdles olympic gold medal winner, Iva Winningstreak was 18 years of age at the time of her record breaking bouncing spree.

Morgan Jump, the local child who beat the record, was still trampolining when our reporter got there. He had looked more determined than anyone that our reporter had ever seen before. He was a member of his village (Balahanna) trampolining and athletics club, and apparently, had never bounced non-stop for anywhere near as long, although he had the local record at 2 hours and 32 minutes.

Our other reporter, James Cooper, travelled to Winton, the home of the ex-record holder, Iva Winningstreak, to find her glaring at the TV Screen. Now 21, she thinks she could beat this ‘little lucky kid’ easily. On the TV she was glaring at, was live footage from Morgan’s house. Iva had searched all of the channels on my <digi-box> “she told our guy at her house angrily, “But I still cannot find any channels which don’t have that irritating kid on it except for <channel 1> and <channel 2>. I didn’t get a response to my record anything like that!”

When our reporter kindly explained that it was because he was so young, Iva turned red and glared at him, so he hurriedly thanked her for her time and exited swiftly.

Meanwhile, back at Morgan’s house. In his backyard to be exact, 4 days, 22 hours and 7 minutes in his record breaking bounce, he exhaustedly threw in the towel to meet a huge round of applause. While Medics made sure he wasn’t suffering from dehydration he had been eating energy food and drinking a sports drink.

We interviewed his mother. She told us that it had all started when he wouldn’t come in for supper and he had refused to stop bouncing. When he explained to his mum that he was going for the World record, she didn’t believe him and told him not to be silly, but after 8 hours of bouncing without even breaking sweat, she started to believe him.

We would have interviewed him, but after almost 5 days with no sleep, we decided to let him rest in peace. So instead, we interviewed the Guinness world record representative at his home. He was flabbergasted by this ‘Trampolining Triumph’ and told our newspaper that: “What this young man did in the past few days was an incredible feat of endurance. The fact that this was achieved by a ten year old is beyond belief, but true!”

When our reporter kindly explained that it was because he was so young, Iva turned red and glared at him, so he hurriedly thanked her for her time and exited swiftly.

Meanwhile, back at Morgan’s house. In his backyard to be exact, 4 days, 22 hours and 7 minutes in his record breaking bounce, he exhaustedly threw in the towel to meet a huge round of applause. While Medics made sure he wasn’t suffering from dehydration he had been eating energy food and drinking a sports drink.

We interviewed his mother. She told us that it had all started when he wouldn’t come in for supper and he had refused to stop bouncing. When he explained to his mum that he was going for the World record, she didn’t believe him and told him not to be silly, but after 8 hours of bouncing without even breaking sweat, she started to believe him.

Morgan Jump, the local child who beat the record, was still trampolining when our reporter got there. He had looked more determined than anyone that our reporter had ever seen before. He was a member of his village (Balahanna) trampolining and athletics club, and apparently, had never bounced non-stop for anywhere near as long, although he had the local record at 2 hours and 32 minutes.

Our other reporter, James Cooper, travelled to Winton, the home of the ex-record holder, Iva Winningstreak, to find her glaring at the TV Screen. Now 21, she thinks she could beat this ‘little lucky kid’ easily. On the TV she was glaring at, was live footage from Morgan’s house. Iva had searched all of the channels on my <digi-box> “she told our guy at her house angrily, “But I still cannot find any channels which don’t have that irritating kid on it except for <channel 1> and <channel 2>. I didn’t get a response to my record anything like that!”

The world record for the longest time without breaking has been BROKEN! Morgan has been silent for a year and six months. He started when he was ten and made it all the way to his birthday on 6th July 2009. He was happy to have beaten Somers's winner but he was furious but got disqualified.

The only way he communicated was through a note pad and pen, even in school! This is what he said during the interview: "I was glad I won the world record trophies. If I keep this up I will break the world record for most world record trophies. I don't really care about the prize, I just care that I achieved something big!"
Hello my name is __________ and I am here to write a newspaper report on RECORD BREAKER!

To day I am going to be talking about a little boy called Ali. Ali is a little boy who kept talking and talking with out a break.

It all happened one day after school. Ali came home and before he had his tea he just started telling his mum how his day at school was. Ali’s mum and dad timed him from 4.30 until 8.00. At 8.00 he ate his tea at asked his mum why it

Amazing teenager had the most largest collection of mascots. Sam told us that it took him 16 years to collect 2,000 mascots. So when did you start to collect mascots? When I was 5 years old. It's amazing! Nearly all the mascots were collected was from family and friends. When Sam got 13 of them on his party he really wasn't pleased but his mum had an idea to sell them. Suddenly he wanted them back. 8 years later he had 1,000 he won them in a game called you get what you want. 2 years later he had too much of them so they built a storage.

Today in the local area, there has been a record breaker. Sam has broken the largest sticker collection. People have been asking Sam how he did it. Sam said, “I have a collection of my favourite stickers, and people have been giving them to me like family and friends.” People from the area are all surprised, how Sam could collect them all in one day. The question is, why did Sam want to do this? Apparently, I just heard that Sam was the first person in the world to do it. Maybe that is why Sam wanted to do it. Sam has been a big fan of sticks from when he was a baby. Sam has said that he wants to carry on collecting stickers for his life. This event happened on 14/04/10 at the local hall. How did Sam start collecting stickers? "I started wanting stickers when..."

On the 1st April 2010, 11 year old [handwritten name] broke the world record (for 10-13 year olds) for the highest stilts walked on. That morning, she told her 14 year old brother, [handwritten name], that she had broken a world record for an April Fool. After hearing that it was a joke, he said to [handwritten name] that she should try and break a world record for real. Soon decided that she should try and break a world record for walking on the highest stilts (for her age group) as she had been doing that for three years. By midday, she had mastered 6m stilts before, she could go on 5.3m stilts. She was extremely pleased.
The shorter task: Charity Choice

In this prompt, pupils are asked to imagine that their teacher has asked them to help decide on a class charity. The task is to write a speech with the purpose of persuading classmates to support their choice. Three illustrated charity options are presented, but it is clear that pupils are free to decide on their own selection. The planning space helps with decision making and encourages the writer to think about how to persuade their class. Better performances are distinguished by the use of carefully constructed sentences, precise vocabulary and a convincing viewpoint within a style of address that effectively persuades the classmates to share the concerns and convictions of the speech-maker.

Charity Choice

Imagine that your class is going to collect some money to give to charity. Your teacher wants the class to decide which charity to support.

It could be:

- A charity to help endangered animals
- A charity to buy books for children in other countries
- A charity to help the local children’s club
- Your own idea

Your task is to write a short speech to persuade your class to support your choice of charity.

SECTION D
SENTENCE STRUCTURE, PUNCTUATION AND TEXT ORGANISATION
Assessment focuses: vary sentences for clarity, purpose and effect
write with technical accuracy of syntax and punctuation in phrases, clauses and sentences construct paragraphs and use cohesion within and between paragraphs

Band D1
● Clauses usually grammatically accurate, mostly joined with and, then, so. Some simple sentences, often a brief sequence starting with subject + verb (We need). Some connections between sentences, eg pronouns (The animals / they).
● Sentences sometimes demarcated by capital letters and full stops.

1 mark

Band D2
● Simple connectives and, but, or, so, when link clauses. Subjects and verbs frequently repeated (It is). Noun phrases mostly simple (the forest) with simple expansion (the new buildings). Some sentences expanded with simple adverbials (now, at school). Connections between sentences built up (no more of them).
● Full stops, capital letters, exclamation marks and question marks mostly accurate; commas used in lists.

Band D3
● Sentences are mostly grammatically sound. Some subordination, eg because, if (if we give our money). Adverbials (when we decide) and expanded noun phrases (the first charity on the scene) vary construction of sentences. Varied modals (could, might, would). Tense choice is generally consistent and appropriate. Some variation in subjects (the panda, bamboo, their babies). Ideas developed within sections. Connections between ideas maintained through ongoing reference (another example).
● Most sentences correctly demarcated; some commas mark phrases or clauses.

3 marks

Band D4
● Simple and complex sentences with varied connectives, eg which, until, although (a mosquito net which costs about £15). Expanded phrases and clauses express ideas economically (who don’t have access to books or a proper education). Main ideas supported by organisation of sentences and/or sections of text (I hope this has made you think).
● Range of punctuation used, almost always correctly, eg brackets, dashes, colons.

SECTION E COMPOSITION AND EFFECT

Assessment focuses:
- write imaginative, interesting and thoughtful texts
- produce texts which are appropriate to task, reader and purpose

Band E1
- A short series of observations or comments about the selected charity, or a list of its attributes.
- Detail sometimes included, eg simple description (no food to eat).

1 mark

Band E2
- An informative account; content may include brief coverage of several aspects (cutting down trees, better jobs). Some features may be listed and/or repetitive. Some simple appeal (please help).
- Writing shows evidence of viewpoint, eg evaluative comment (really good).
- Some vocabulary describes selected charity (active, special) although other references are general (some money, their things).

2–3 marks

Band E3
- Coverage is balanced, eg includes several aspects relating to the charity with development / examples (pencils for children who want to draw). Detail supports informative and/or persuasive purpose (honey bees, collecting small bits of cloth).
- Viewpoint established and maintained, eg the writer’s positive attitude to selected charity is evident (help them live a normal life).
- Some straightforward stylistic features used to support purpose, eg description (speeding cars, dirty and muddy).

4–5 marks

Band E4
- Adaptation for reader, eg direct appeal (you could save; you know how they feel). Thorough coverage.
- Viewpoint established and controlled, eg suggests writer’s knowledge of and confidence in selected charity (not many are mating, provide a clean water supply).
- Some stylistic features add emphasis and interest, eg emotive appeal *(vandalising, dehydrated), informative vocabulary (remote, predators) and rhetorical questions.

6–7 marks

Band E5
- Reader and purpose inform choice and placing of content, eg phrase for persuasive impact placed for final appeal (What would it be like with no club?).
- Viewpoint well controlled and convincing, eg selection of detail to encourage reader to support the chosen charity (One species of tiger has only 36 left in the world).
- A range of stylistic features, eg patterning (millions died, thousands injured, a few survivors), word play, alliteration.

8 marks
Speech gives brief coverage of the animal charity with limited development (saving the live of the animals) and listing (E2).

Some evaluative comment is evident (just like human, should be loved and cared for) (E2).

Word choice mostly general (inf), with some simple description (fit and hettly) (E2).

Summary

This simple speech about a charity for endangered animals includes the writer’s positive viewpoint, indicating award in Band E2. Greater evidence of descriptive word choice and slightly more development of content would be necessary for award of the higher mark in the band.
I think that our class should raise money for sports for the nation. Because the money that we raise, can help Other people and our school! Sports for the nation gets people of all ages to become more active and healthy! They provide everywhere around England with sports equipment and tips to help you keep active! so that's why I think our class should sponsor sports for the nation. To keep England healthy and active!

SENTENCE STRUCTURE

- simple noun phrases (D2)
- noun phrases with simple expansion (D2)
- simple adverbial (D2)

COMPOSITION & EFFECT

- Limited coverage with occasional development of content (tips to help you keep active); includes simple appeal (that's why) (E2).
- Writer's viewpoint apparent (can help Other people and our school) (E2).
- Some word choice is general (money, people) (E2); some attempts to use formal language (provide, equipment, sponsor) (above E2).

PUNCTUATION & TEXT ORGANISATION

- accurate sentence demarcation (D2)
- connection built up between sentences (D2)

Summary

In this straightforward speech about a sports charity, the writer offers a brief description of the charity's good work. Together with some careful word choices, this gives sufficient evidence for the higher mark in Band E2.

Band E2 – 3 marks

Band D2 – 2 marks
Hello, I'm Bethan and I'm here to discuss the charity of my choice.

The charity I will be supporting is the charity which will help pay for books in countries where they have nothing.

The reason I chose this charity is because here in England we have schools, books and we have a nice warm house over our heads, but over there, there is absolutely nothing.

I am asking you to vote for my charity because I would like to make a change to the children's lives who have nothing.

All the money that is raised will help a number of families, just £1 could buy a blanket for a family to sleep in. Thank you and please vote for my charity!
The charity I think we should give the money to is the youth club. It would be a fun place to meet friends and have a chat. You could meet knew people who live in the village or nearby. If you’re bored you would have somewhere were you can have fun and keep out of troble. The money we donate could go towards pool tables, air hockey and even giving a layer of paint to brighten the place up. The youth club would also be a great thing to have in the community. Maybe if your just a bit fed up of your brothers or sisters you could come to the youth club and chill out without having brothers or sisters anoying you.

I think this would be a great cause! Thank you for listening.
Our class have been thinking about a certain charity to raise money for. Although many charities are easily good enough, I believe that the charity that we should put our money towards is Cancer Research! Many people are diagnosed with cancer every month and so far, no-one has found a cure for it. Cancer effects families greatly and causes grief and hardship. But if we don’t help, more people will die and families will grieve even more. We SHOULD help them; make their lives happy and joyous! This is why I think we should put our money towards this outstanding charity, Cancer Research. Please, take my ideas into account and contemplate them. Thankyou!
Hello 6D,

My name is Barinder and I would like to persuade you into supporting the endangered animals charity with the money that we hope to raise. There are many reasons for my choice and I am going to tell you about them today.

My first valid reason is that us humans are the reason that many endangered animals are so scarce. For us to get paper, wood and other tree based products, many trees have to be cut down. (However) those huge plants aren’t just trees, they’re the natural home of animals. By supporting this charity we can give back thousands of trees and other much needed habitats for endangered animals.

My second and last reason is that beautiful animals such as elephants and pandas carried on being endangered with no help, they might well become extinct! Don’t you want your children and grandchildren to witness natures beauty? If you do supporting this charity bring each and every one of us into a brighter future.

So I hope you all agree with me that supporting this charity, benifits the long history of the animals and their future too. Also it helps us too, so that these truly beautiful but endangered creatures can be seen long after we die. So supporting endangered animals from extinction, supports the whole world.
The spelling test

The following conventions should be followed when marking spelling:

- if more than one attempt is made, it must be clear which version the pupil wishes to be marked
- spellings can be written in upper or lower case, or a mixture of the two
- if a word has been written with the correct sequence of letters but these have been separated into clearly divided components, with or without a dash, the mark is not awarded
- if a word has been written with the correct sequence of letters but an apostrophe or hyphen has been inserted, the mark is not awarded.

The words omitted from the pupils' spelling test are those printed in bold in the version below.
Quick reference mark scheme for the spelling test

1. simple 11. competition
2. purposes 12. easiest
3. enemies 13. correctly
4. instruments 14. vertical
5. tribal 15. swoops
6. significant 16. adjustment
7. dimensions 17. breeze
8. function 18. precision
9. typically 19. clapping
10. tourists 20. attempt

Scoring spelling

Markers will record the total number of words spelt correctly, out of 20, in the box on the cover of the shorter writing task and spelling test booklet.

The conversion of the spelling test mark, from out of 20 words to out of 7 marks, will be done automatically when the total score out of 20 is entered into the online mark system.

If the spelling test is being marked without the use of the online mark system the spelling mark, out of 20, has to be converted to a mark out of 7, using the conversion table below.
