The Moving Statue

One day, while playing in the park, you notice a statue carved out of stone in the middle of the pond. As you look more closely you realise that it is moving...

Write a story about what happens when the statue comes to life.