Key points

- The reading test must be administered first.
- The reading test is one hour long. It is in two parts and can either be administered in one session or split over two sessions. See below (one session) or overleaf (two sessions) for details.
- You should ensure that each pupil has a Reading booklet and a Reading answer booklet.

Administration in one session

- Pupils must be instructed to read the whole Reading booklet during the 15 minutes' reading time. They must not look at the questions in the Reading answer booklet during this time.
- Remind pupils that they will be able to refer to the Reading booklet when they are answering the questions.
- After the 15 minutes' reading time, ask pupils to write their name and the name of the school in the appropriate boxes on the Reading answer booklet. Explain that the Reading answer booklet has questions on each text in the Reading booklet and on the booklet as a whole.
- Read the 'remember' section on the front cover of the Reading answer booklet to the pupils.
- Explain to pupils that they should work through the whole Reading answer booklet, referring to the Reading booklet as necessary. If they cannot answer a question, they should move on and return to it later.
- Explain to pupils that if they have any problems they may ask for help, but they cannot be helped with the answering of any questions or have any words read to them.
- Give pupils appropriate time reminders during the test.
