

En

YEAR
7LEVELS
3-4

2003

All about Dogs

Spelling

First Name _____

Last Name _____

School _____

Date _____

Remember

- Your teacher will read the spelling passage to you.
- Your version of the passage has words missing from it which you should fill in when your teacher tells you.

Number of words correct		Mark awarded
0		0
1	2	1
3	4	2
5	6	3
7	8	4
9	10	5
11	12	6
13	14	7
15

All about Dogs

Domestic dogs are part of the same _____ as wolves, jackals and foxes. Dogs were first _____ as pets around 14,000 years ago.

 1 2

Characteristics and behaviour

The dog has a small head and _____ muzzle, but the shape of the head _____ greatly in _____ breeds. Dogs can be easily trained because of their intelligence.

 3 4 5

Some dogs may be fierce or _____ unless they are well trained. Like wolves, dogs defend a territory against other dogs. There are also similarities in their aggressive behaviour, the care of their _____ and the way they bury food.

 6 7

Wild dogs

Some wild dogs are solitary, but others hunt in groups. Jackals scavenge for food that other animals have left
_____, and the raccoon dog from east Asia eats plants and meat.

 8

Uses of dogs

Dogs are _____ as sheepdogs as they can keep the flock together. In the Arctic regions, dogs are used for _____ vehicles through the snow. A dog's sense of smell is better than its _____. They can use their sense of smell to track criminals and detect drugs. Dogs can also be used as guards for the _____ of buildings.

History

Archaeological _____ shows that dogs were probably domesticated from wolves many centuries ago. Ancient monuments in Egypt were carved with figures of dogs. The Egyptians worshipped a star they named the 'Dog Star'. They had advance _____ that the Nile would flood because they saw this star _____.

9

10

11

12

13

14

15

© Qualifications and Curriculum Authority 2003
QCA, Years 7 and 8 Team, 83 Piccadilly, London W1J 8QA

QCA/03/1023 (pupil pack)
QCA/03/1019 (teacher pack)

255002